

63% currently own a car

42% of households (with a car) own two or more

84% would like to see fewer cars on the road in their city

83% are worried about pollution in their city

26% used an app to book a car with a driver in the past year

Nearly half in Paris (48%) and London (46%) used an app to book a car with a driver in the past year

Over two thirds (67%) think app-based services can be an alternative to private car ownership

63% of multi-car households would consider owning only one car if they could use a combination of mobility apps and public transport

